The Albert Williams Family.

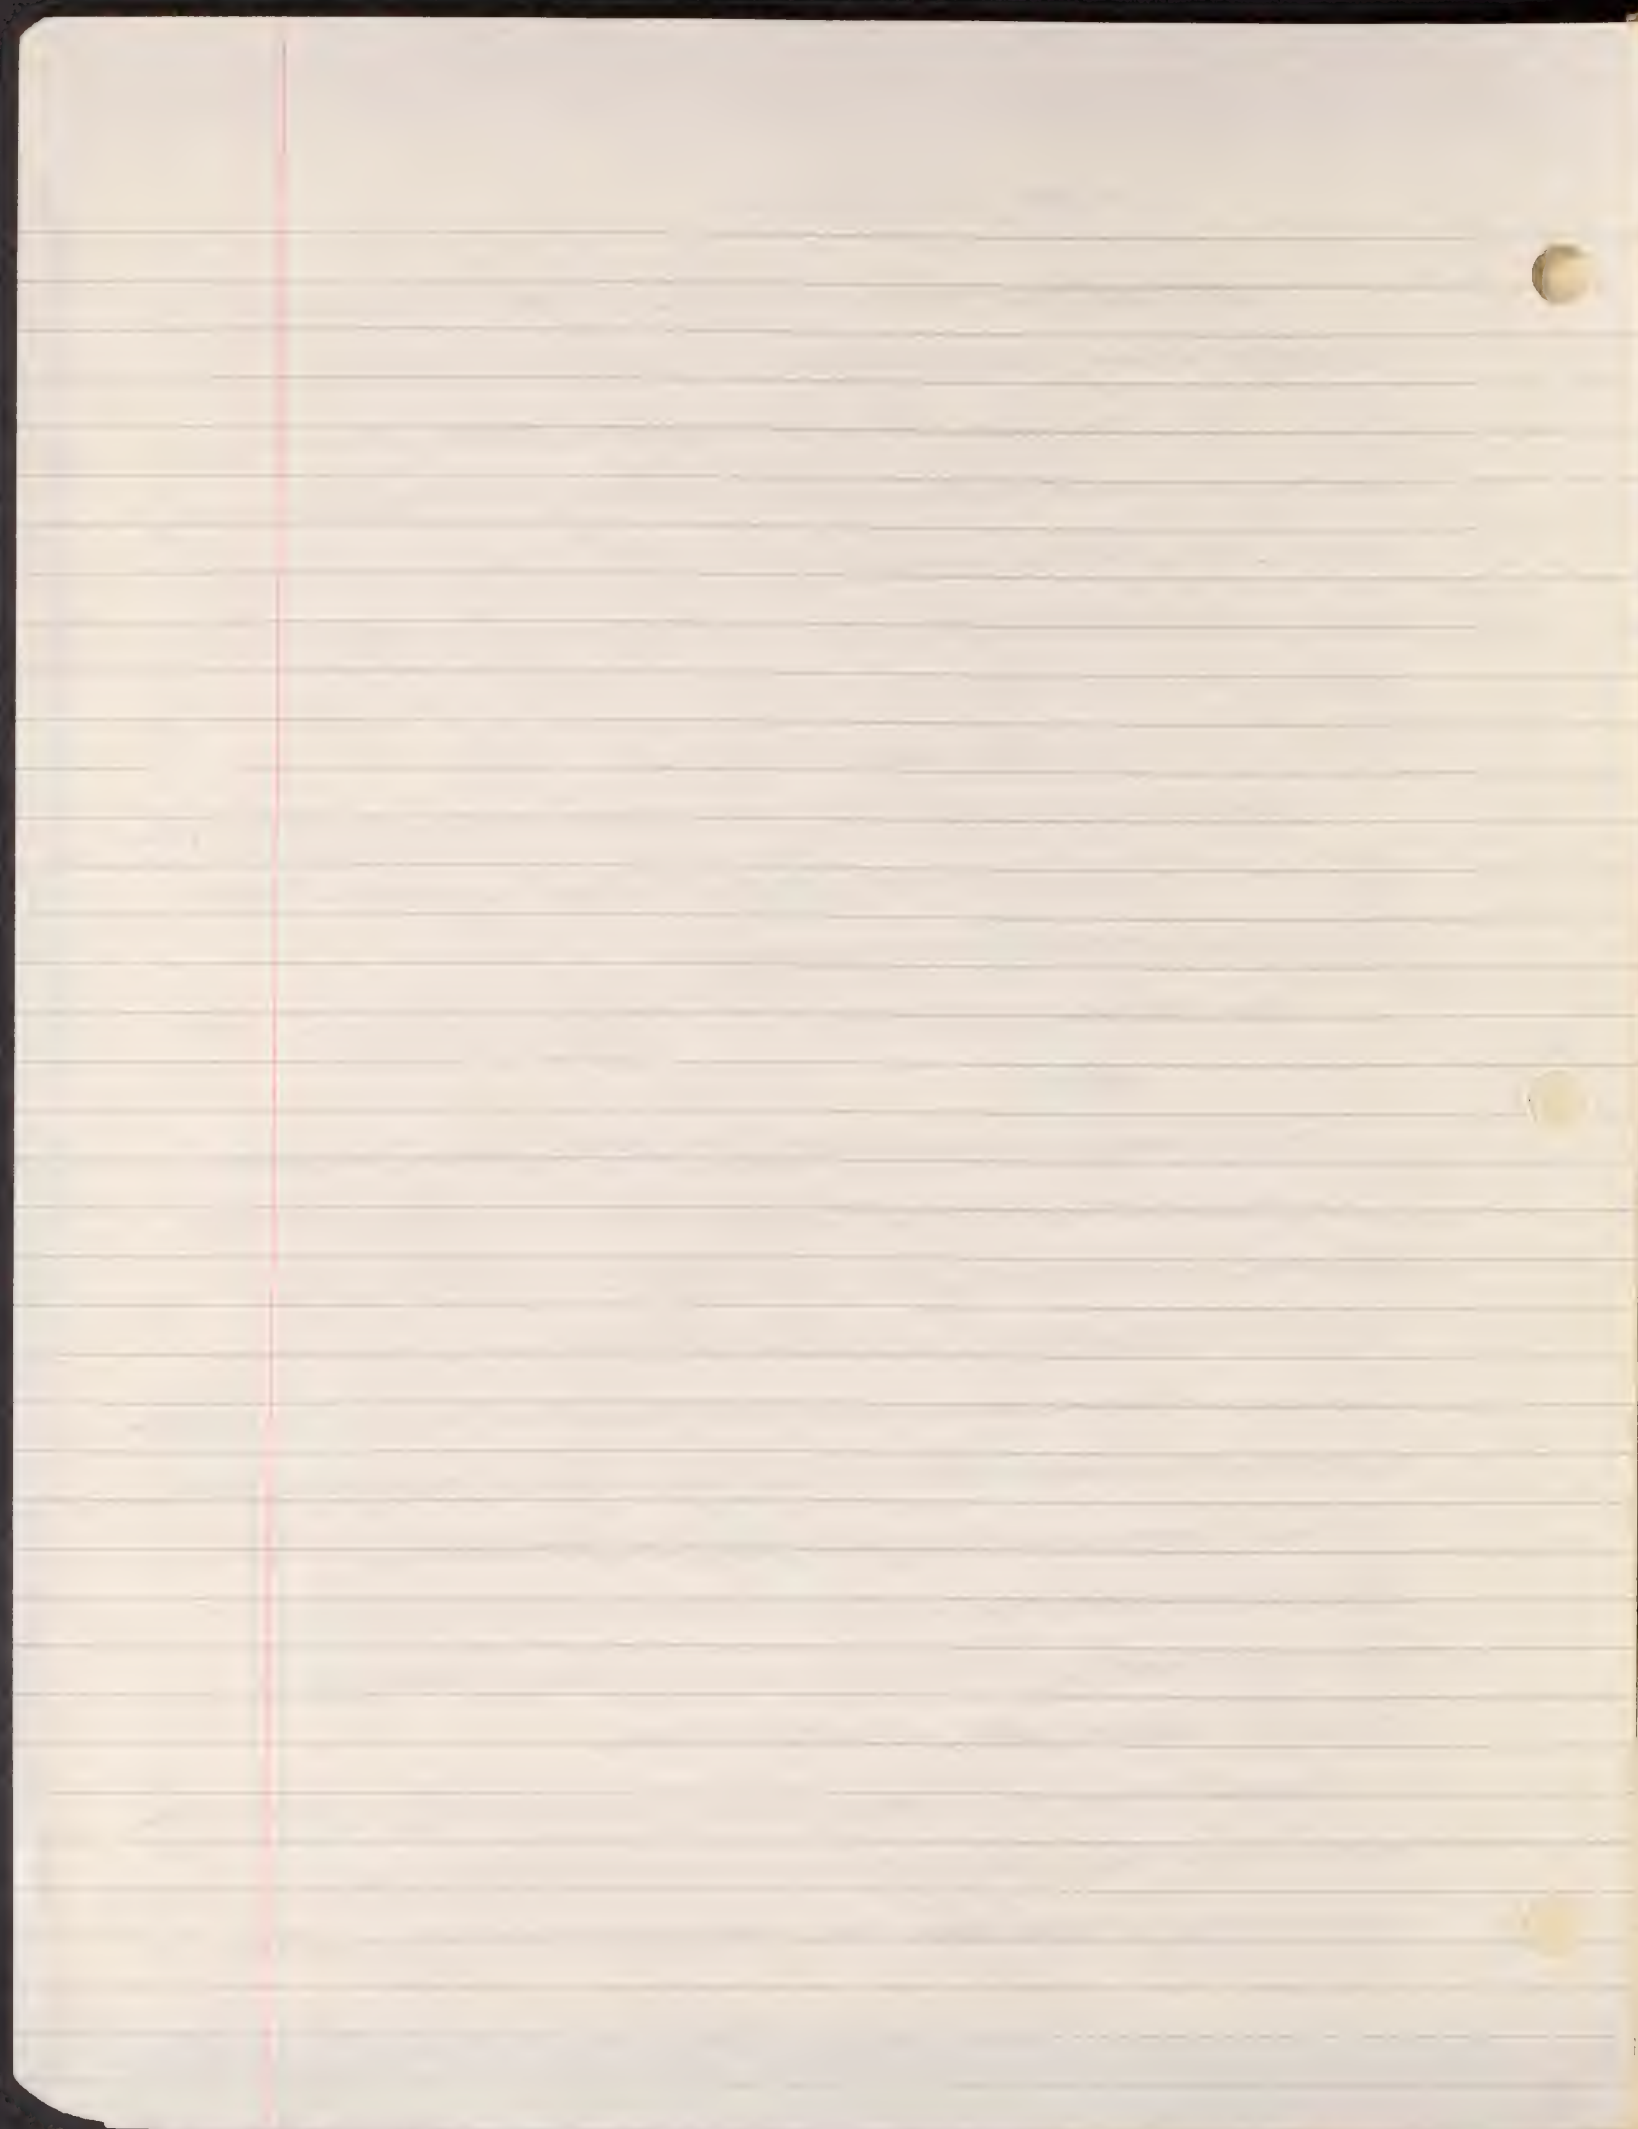

This Williams family is Dutch in origin. In those early days there was no regular surname; a man was known by his given name, as the son of his father, such as Jan Willem. But in America, when a Dutchman arrived in New York, the name of the community from whence he came was added as a surname. Thus, when two brothers, Oscar and Willem, arrived in America, they were from Van Wamavault, which became their surname. As this method did not appeal to them, they took their given names as surnames. Oscar became Ouser, or Oser, and Willem became known as Williams.

Little further is known of this Williams family until John Albert, U. E., joined the 2nd Battalion of the King's Royal Regiment of New York. He is recorded as in 1783 list of his regiment, as:

Albert Williams, aged 21 years, 5 ft., 8 inches, born America. 2 years service.

This informs us that Albert was born in 1762 in America, and joined his regiment in 1781, at the age of nineteen years. About 1786, he married Catherine, whose surname in, at present, unknown. In the drawing of his lot from the Officer's hat, he drew the East half of Lot 1, in the third Concession of Fredericksburgh, on the south shore of Bay Bay. Here he settled. By 1788 or 9, he became entitled to more land, amounting to 200 acres, plus 50 acres if married, and 50 acres for each child. This enabled him to draw 350 additional acres, being Lot 25 in the first and second concessions of Camden East Township, the site of the present village of Camden East in Lennox and Addington County, on the Bay of Quinte.

Albert Williams and his family removed to Camden in 1803, or thereabouts. It is recorded that he was the first white settler in the village known as Clark's Mills, and later Camden East. The Napanee River crosses the Lot just north of the boundary, so he was forced to erect his first home on the south of the river, as there was no bridge at that time. Later he erected an old fashioned Dutch house on the north bank of the stream. Some years later, after Albert's demise, his son James, who inherited the property, built another framed house.

When James Williams died in 1876, the property was inherited by his son Lorenzo Jow. Not long thereafter, he erected the outstanding three story house on the north bank of the Saranac, which still stands as the landmark of Camden East. It was constructed of brick, with white granite trim on the corners, and heated by a wood furnace.. Lorenzo obtained the granite from his lot in Sheffield Township, back on the Laurentian Shield.

When Lorenzo Jow's son, Sidney Lorenzo married Edith Paul, the bride and groom occupied the west side until their deaths, while Lorenzo Jow and wife occupied the east side, which faced the village and the river. Years later the mansion has been taken over by the Church of England as an old people's residence.

Albert's Family Connections.

John Albert Williams, the Loyalist pioneer, joined the King's Royal Reg't., of New York, in 1781, at the age of 19 years. He settled in Fredericksburgh in 1784, and soon after married Catharine McIntosh, daughter of

G. L. WILLIAMS, AGED 81, DEAD

DEATH FOLLOWS CEREBRAL HEMORRHAGE

1933
RETIRED DEXTER FARMER

Native of Canada, Mr. Williams Spent Most of His Life as a Farmer in Northern New York —He Retired to This City Nearly Five Years Ago.

George L. Williams, 81, of 121 High street, a retired farmer of Dexter, died at 11 Wednesday night at the House of the Good Samaritan, where he had been a patient since last Thursday.

He suffered a cerebral hemorrhage shortly before he entered the hospital. Chronic myocarditis caused his death. He had been in good health before his final illness.

Mr. Williams, a native of Canada, was a naturalized citizen of the United States and had lived in this country since his youth. He lived at Dexter about 25 years before coming here nearly five years ago after the death of his wife. Previously he had operated farms at Fort Jackson, Evans Mills and Chaumont.

Mr. Williams was born at Belleville, Ont., April 7, 1857, son of Nelson and Rebecca Williams. His parents were natives of England. When he was a young man Mr. Williams moved to Fort Jackson in St. Lawrence county and remained there until after his marriage at Fort Jackson, July 4, 1888. His wife, the former Miss Melissa C. LaTrace, was a native of Cornwall, Ont., and was residing at Antwerp at the time of her marriage.

After their wedding Mr. and Mrs. Williams lived about three years at Evans Mills and ten years at Chaumont before moving to Dexter about 1909. Mr. Williams operated the Ert Gilmore farm at Dexter in the town of Hounsfield 25 years, until his wife died there March 7, 1934. Soon afterward he moved here to live with his grandson, Carl R. Goodfriend, with whom he had since resided.

Before his retirement Mr. Williams was a farmer for nearly 65 years, in Canada and northern New York. He was a member of the Men's club of the Dexter Presbyterian church.

An only daughter, Mrs. Eleanor W. Goodfriend, mother of Mr. Goodfriend, died 21 years ago.

Mr. Williams is survived by his grandson, Carl Royal Goodfriend, of 121 High street, city; two nephews, Earl Williams, of Potsdam and Harry Meecham of Syracuse, and one niece, Pearl Fiske, who lives in St. Lawrence county.

The body was removed last night to the Chidester funeral home at Dexter and will be taken Friday morning to the Goodfriend home here.

Funeral services will be held at the Goodfriend home at 1 p. m. Saturday and at 2 from the Presbyterian church at Dexter. Rev. John R. Campbell, pastor of the Dexter church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Dexter cemetery.

Thomas Powerman's activities in the war are hinted at by his son and at the bottom of p. 14, I have merely suggested possibilities.
 He was recognized as a soldier by his grant of land. As the family were staunch Quakers, they rarely admitted that an ancestor had taken part in the war. He was the only one who did. Vincent wrote that he did not think his father belonged to any church, but he attended & Friends' meetings and knew that his family attended.
 He was also a trustee of the Bloomfield meeting property (see of Bond, History of the Society of Friends in Canada)
 Jane Richmond Powerman also became a founder of the Society in Prince Edward Co.

Family by Joshua Bailey Richmond, Boston 1897 and accepted its statement.

I note that you state that your ancestor Jane Powersman, daughter of Deborah Powersman and Lydia Mott, was born 1737
I have her date (p. 14) 1st. mo. 25th 1750. I have no information on the Mott family. I suspect they were from Plymouth Colony.

My account of Thomas Powersman U. S. A. is to be found on page 17 as recorded by his son Vincent.

Colonel Henry Young allotted Thomas Powersman, Private, lot 3 on the North side of East Lake and so reported to Major Peter Crambline Feb. 26th 1789. (p. 14 - 2nd par) a copy of this allotment in a list is in the Ontario archives deposited here on my advice by Mrs.
Henry Young of Raftore about 1920.

Dear Mr. Burleigh, - Aug 9th, 1963.

It is a coincidence that I was preparing to write you when your letter came on the 6th inst. I met you, accompanied by my brother J. P., then Secretary Treasurer of P.E.C. Co. now retired, some two years ago and we spoke of you as we passed your office on June 5th last.

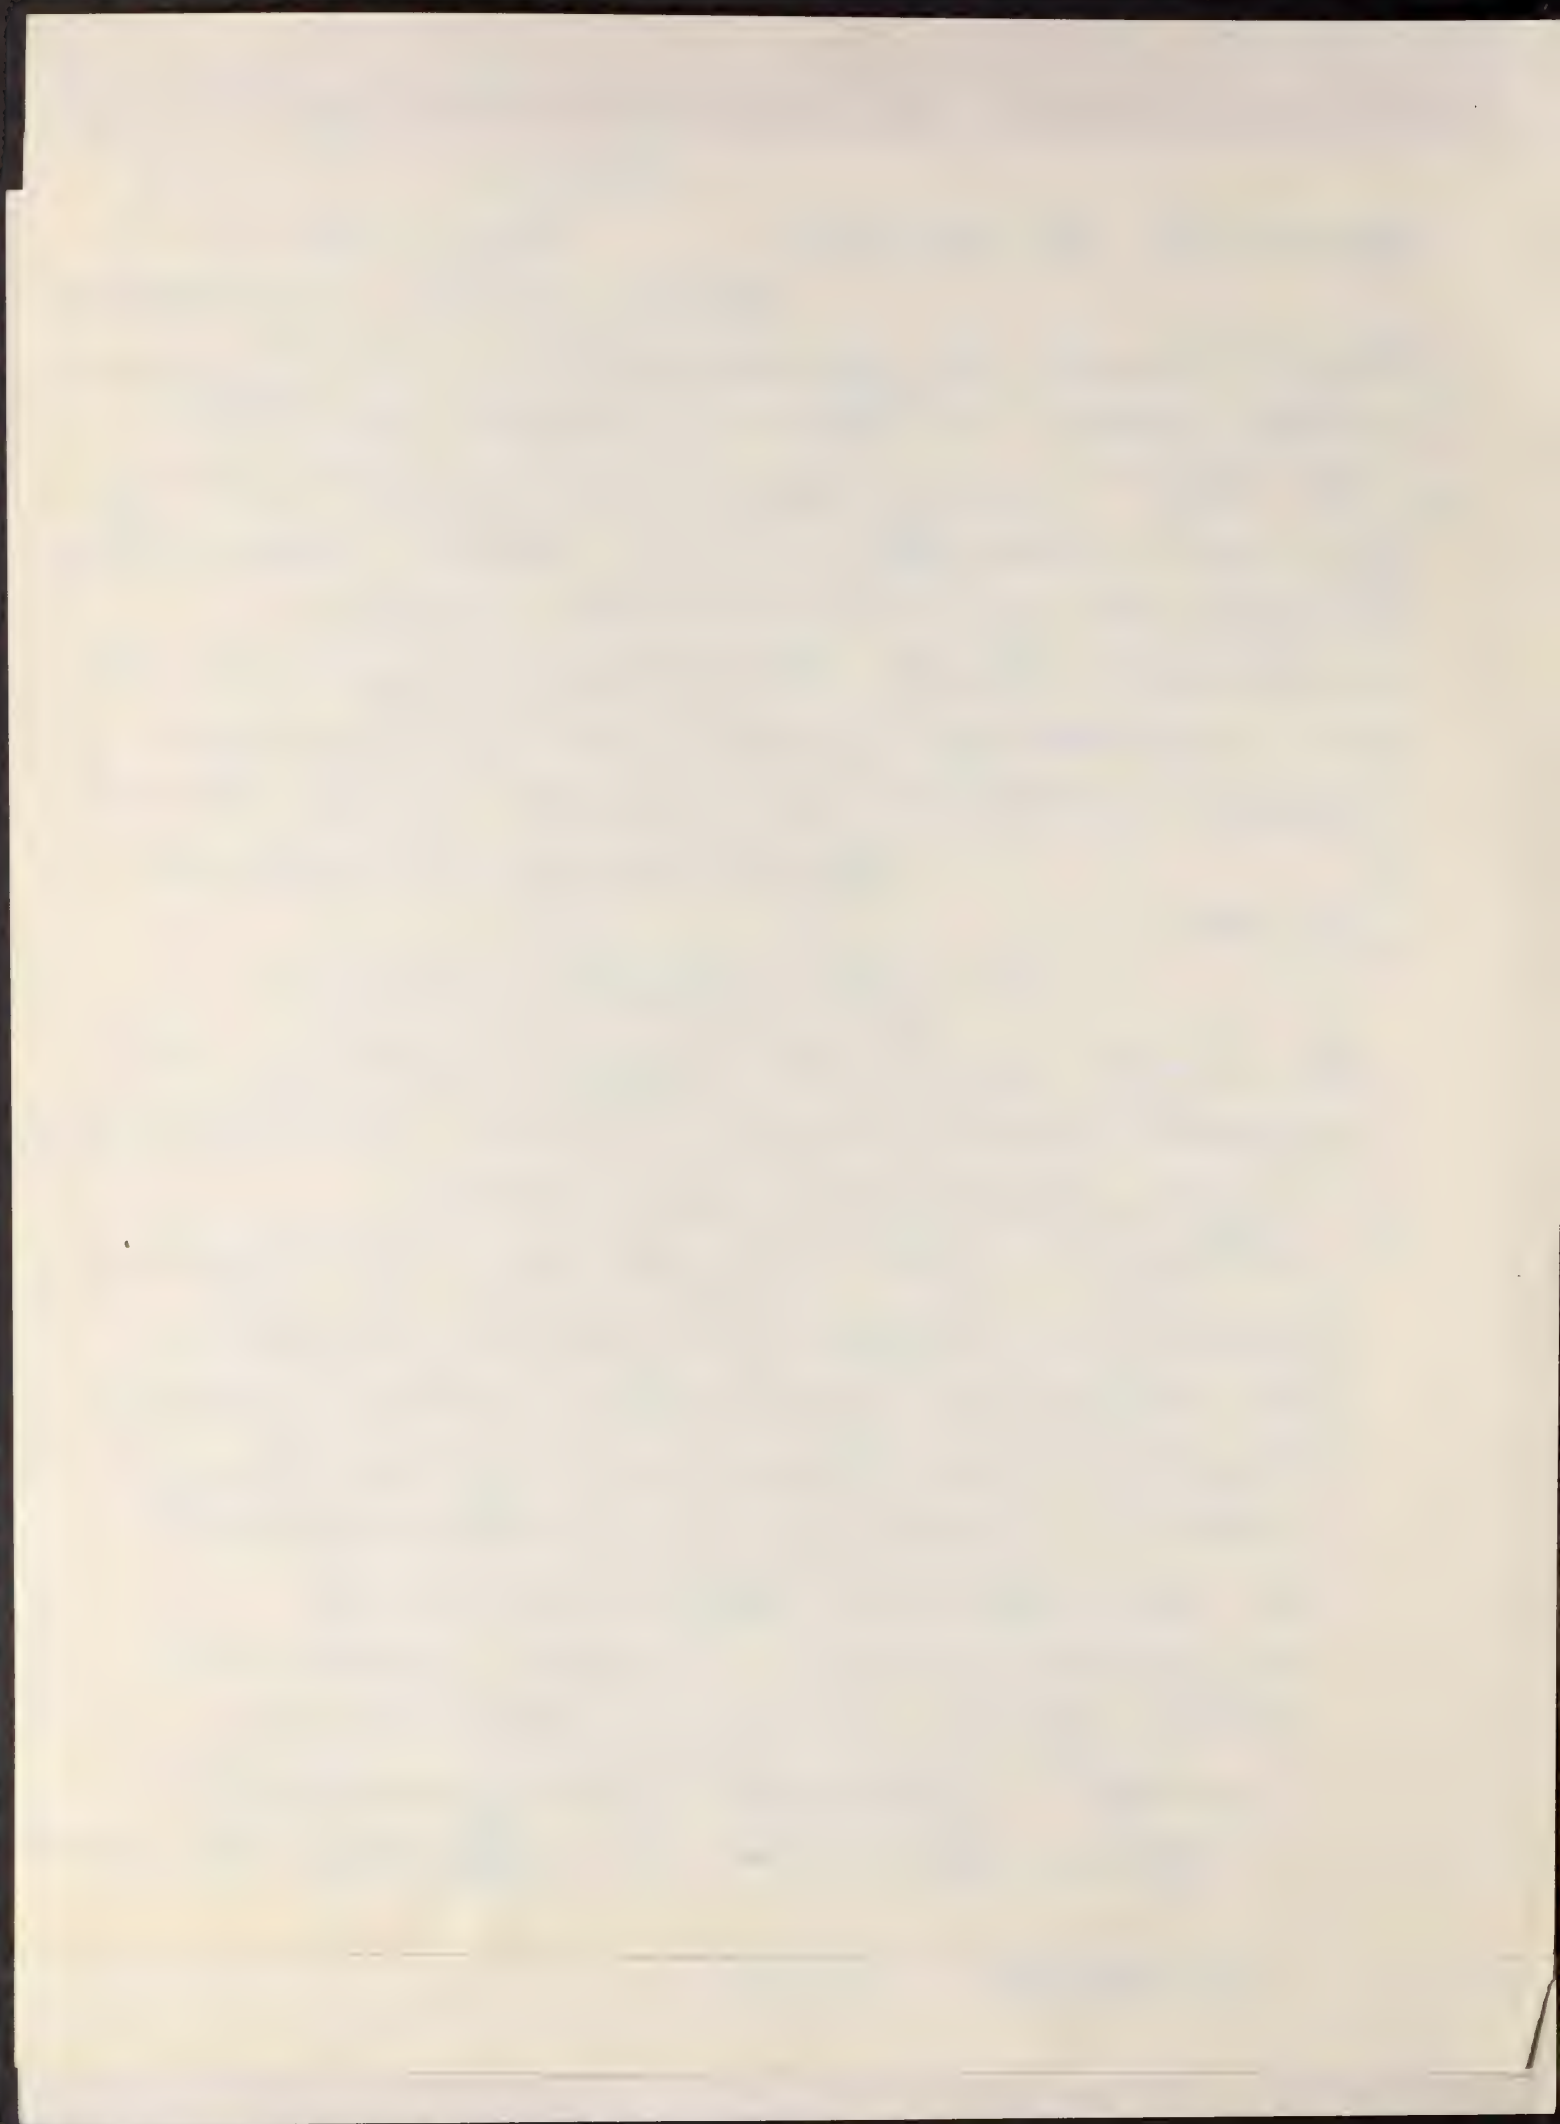

Referring to your letter:-

1st. The Richmonds:-

In my article "Upper Canada and New York State" Canadian Geographical Journal Vol. L.V. No 1. Jan. 1957 p 28,

I quoted from Pioneer life on the Day of Quinze. (see Anne Club) (see Rowman of p 39 my book) called my attention to the mistakes in this account and I soon found that there had never been any Bishop Richmonds.

I then turned to the Richmond

In addition to my Proverman Book, do you have the 47 page foots-est records of the Proverman and related families prepared by my grandfather Rev. V. Proverman 50 years ago? If not I can supply you with one. I have a Haught (Commonwealth) diary written in 1824 of a trip from Adolphusville to Poughkeepsie and New York City - almost ready for distribution to the Allen House and yourself.

I also prepared a sketch of the Marsh Family which should be in the Allen House archives.
 Who is now custodian of their records?

Sincerely yours
 M. J. Williams

Freeman suspects that Samuel was John Williams son. John is evidently the same man as was at Mashish in 1783 and may have been the John who took up land later in
 Could Samuel have lived with his father near Bath until of age - and then moved to West Lake?
 I should appreciate any information you may have.
 Charles F. Deek of Blomfield, a descendant of Samuel Williams tells me he used to drive his grandmother Rachel ne Williams to visit relatives near Bath.

I am working on the Williams history which includes Mrs. George Richardson of Winnipeg, Prof. Francesco Osborne of Laval, besides many more of us.

The Albany Library,
my friend Mr. L. L. Campbell Librarian and Archivist at Ottawa and Mr. Sprague at Toronto have failed to find a record of a Samuel Williams that fits the well established dates. Samuel Williams registers in Ernestown before the close of the war and could scarcely be so young as 17 years.

W. R. Freeman of Ridgton who has worked long on his Rogers-Williams ancestry writes (Jan. 31, 1900)
"John Williams and William Rogers in a group of 81 fled from Saratoga (Schuylerville) N.Y. north to Lake George and were pursued by the rebels. I think that Sumner and Armstrong were with them. They were under 'Mahogany' Jones in the Jessup's corps and must as registered (see Piton office) June 13, 1796. He probably took possession of this farm before he was married and before any improvements had been made, as Belden's Atlas says it was a "howling wilderness" and Thomas Bourman had moved to neighbouring lot 5 in 1790 or earlier. The Platts and Pettits were also early settlers.

The question is why did not Samuel Williams receive a grant of land as a loyalist soldier? In his will dated 6th of June 1822 item 6 "I give and bequeath to my son Samuel Williams
jun. one hundred acres of land which I employed David McGregor Rogers to survey for me, . . . in the Township of Cramack Newcastle District."
Was this a military grant?

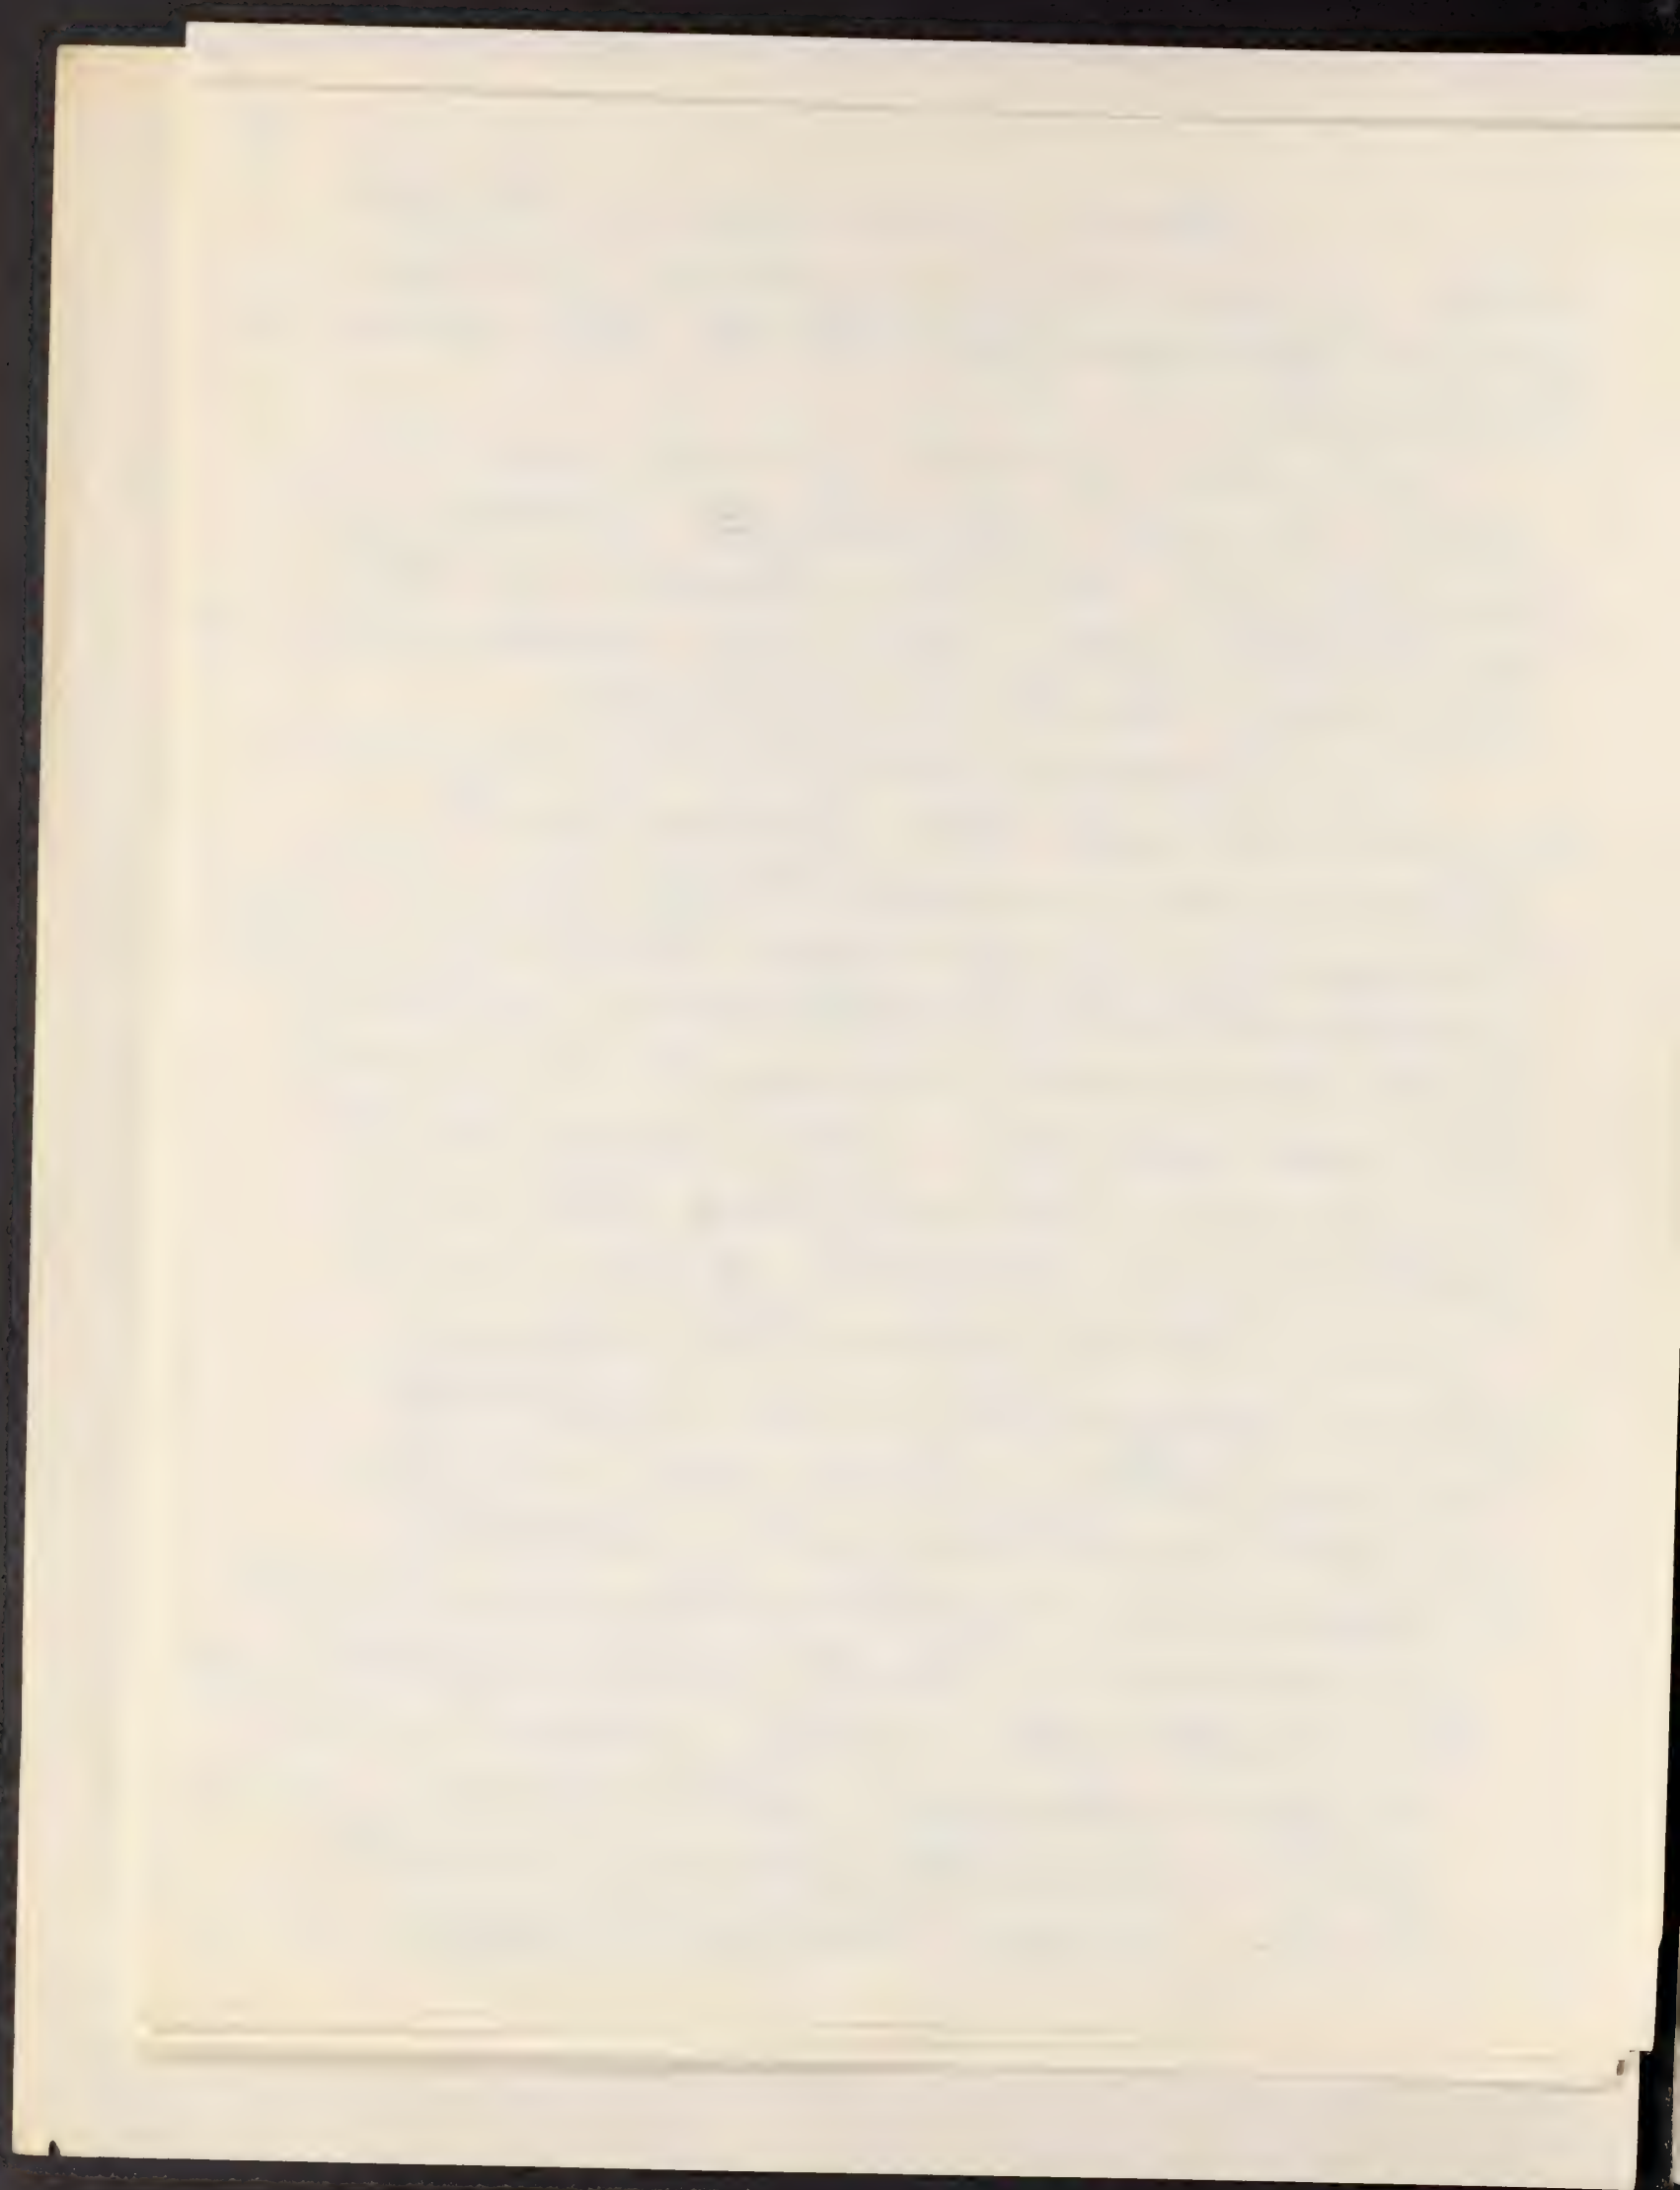

4.

Now can you help me regarding my great-grandfather Samuel William.

He was born "in or near New York" (Sullivan's Atlas of Hartford - Prince Edwards Co.) on May 25th 1767 (see monument in West Lake Cemetery)

Samuel Williams was a scout in the Loyalist forces as recorded by his grandson and my grandfather John Platt Williams, whose statements have never let me down. He was only 16 years old when the war closed in April 1783 and 17 in 1794 when the land above Huntington was settled.
Calculated from the dates of his children's births.
Samuel Williams married Ann Platt (from Northburgh N.Y. Oct. 6th, 1776) about 1793.
He purchased his home farm lot 2, south side of West Lake from Gilbert Mogart.

U. E. Loyalists whose Children do not Appear to have Applied for Land as Such.

WILLIAMS, Armstrong. born in America in 1756, likely son of John Williams, Sr., of Saratoga, N. Y. He married, between Nov., 1783, and May, 1784, Mary Ann, daughter of Francis Le Rocque, U. E., a French Canadian, of Sorel or Vercheres.

He joined Jessup's King's Loyal Americans at Crown Point, 4 Nov., 1776. Was at Pointe Claire, Quebec, on 24 Jan., 1777, and took part in Gen. Burgoyne's expedition to Saratoga, and was at the two Battles of Saratoga, serving the full campaign from 24 June to 24 Oct., 1777.

On 12 Oct., 1778, he is listed as a private in Capt. Jonathan Jones' Coy., King's Loyal Americans, stationed at Sorel, Que.

On 24 Oct., 1780, he was with the same regiment, and was stationed at Crown Point.

On 1 Jan., 1782, he is listed in Major Edward Jessup's Coy., Loyal Rangers, stationed at Vercheres, Que. This return noted that he was born in America, 26 years of age, 5' 7" in height, and had served 5 years and 1 month.

A year later, on 1 Jan., 1783, he is listed as private in Capt. Thos. Fraser's Coy., Loyal Rangers, stationed at Riviere du Chene. He was then aged 26 years, 5' 8" in height, with 6 years 2 months service.

On 24 Feb., 1783, he was still at Riviere du Chene.

In a return of Loyalists in November ?, 1783, he was single and from New York, a farmer.

He joined the group of Loyalists destined to settle in Ernesttown Township. In a Muster Roll of that Township on 7 Oct., 1784, he was married with no children.

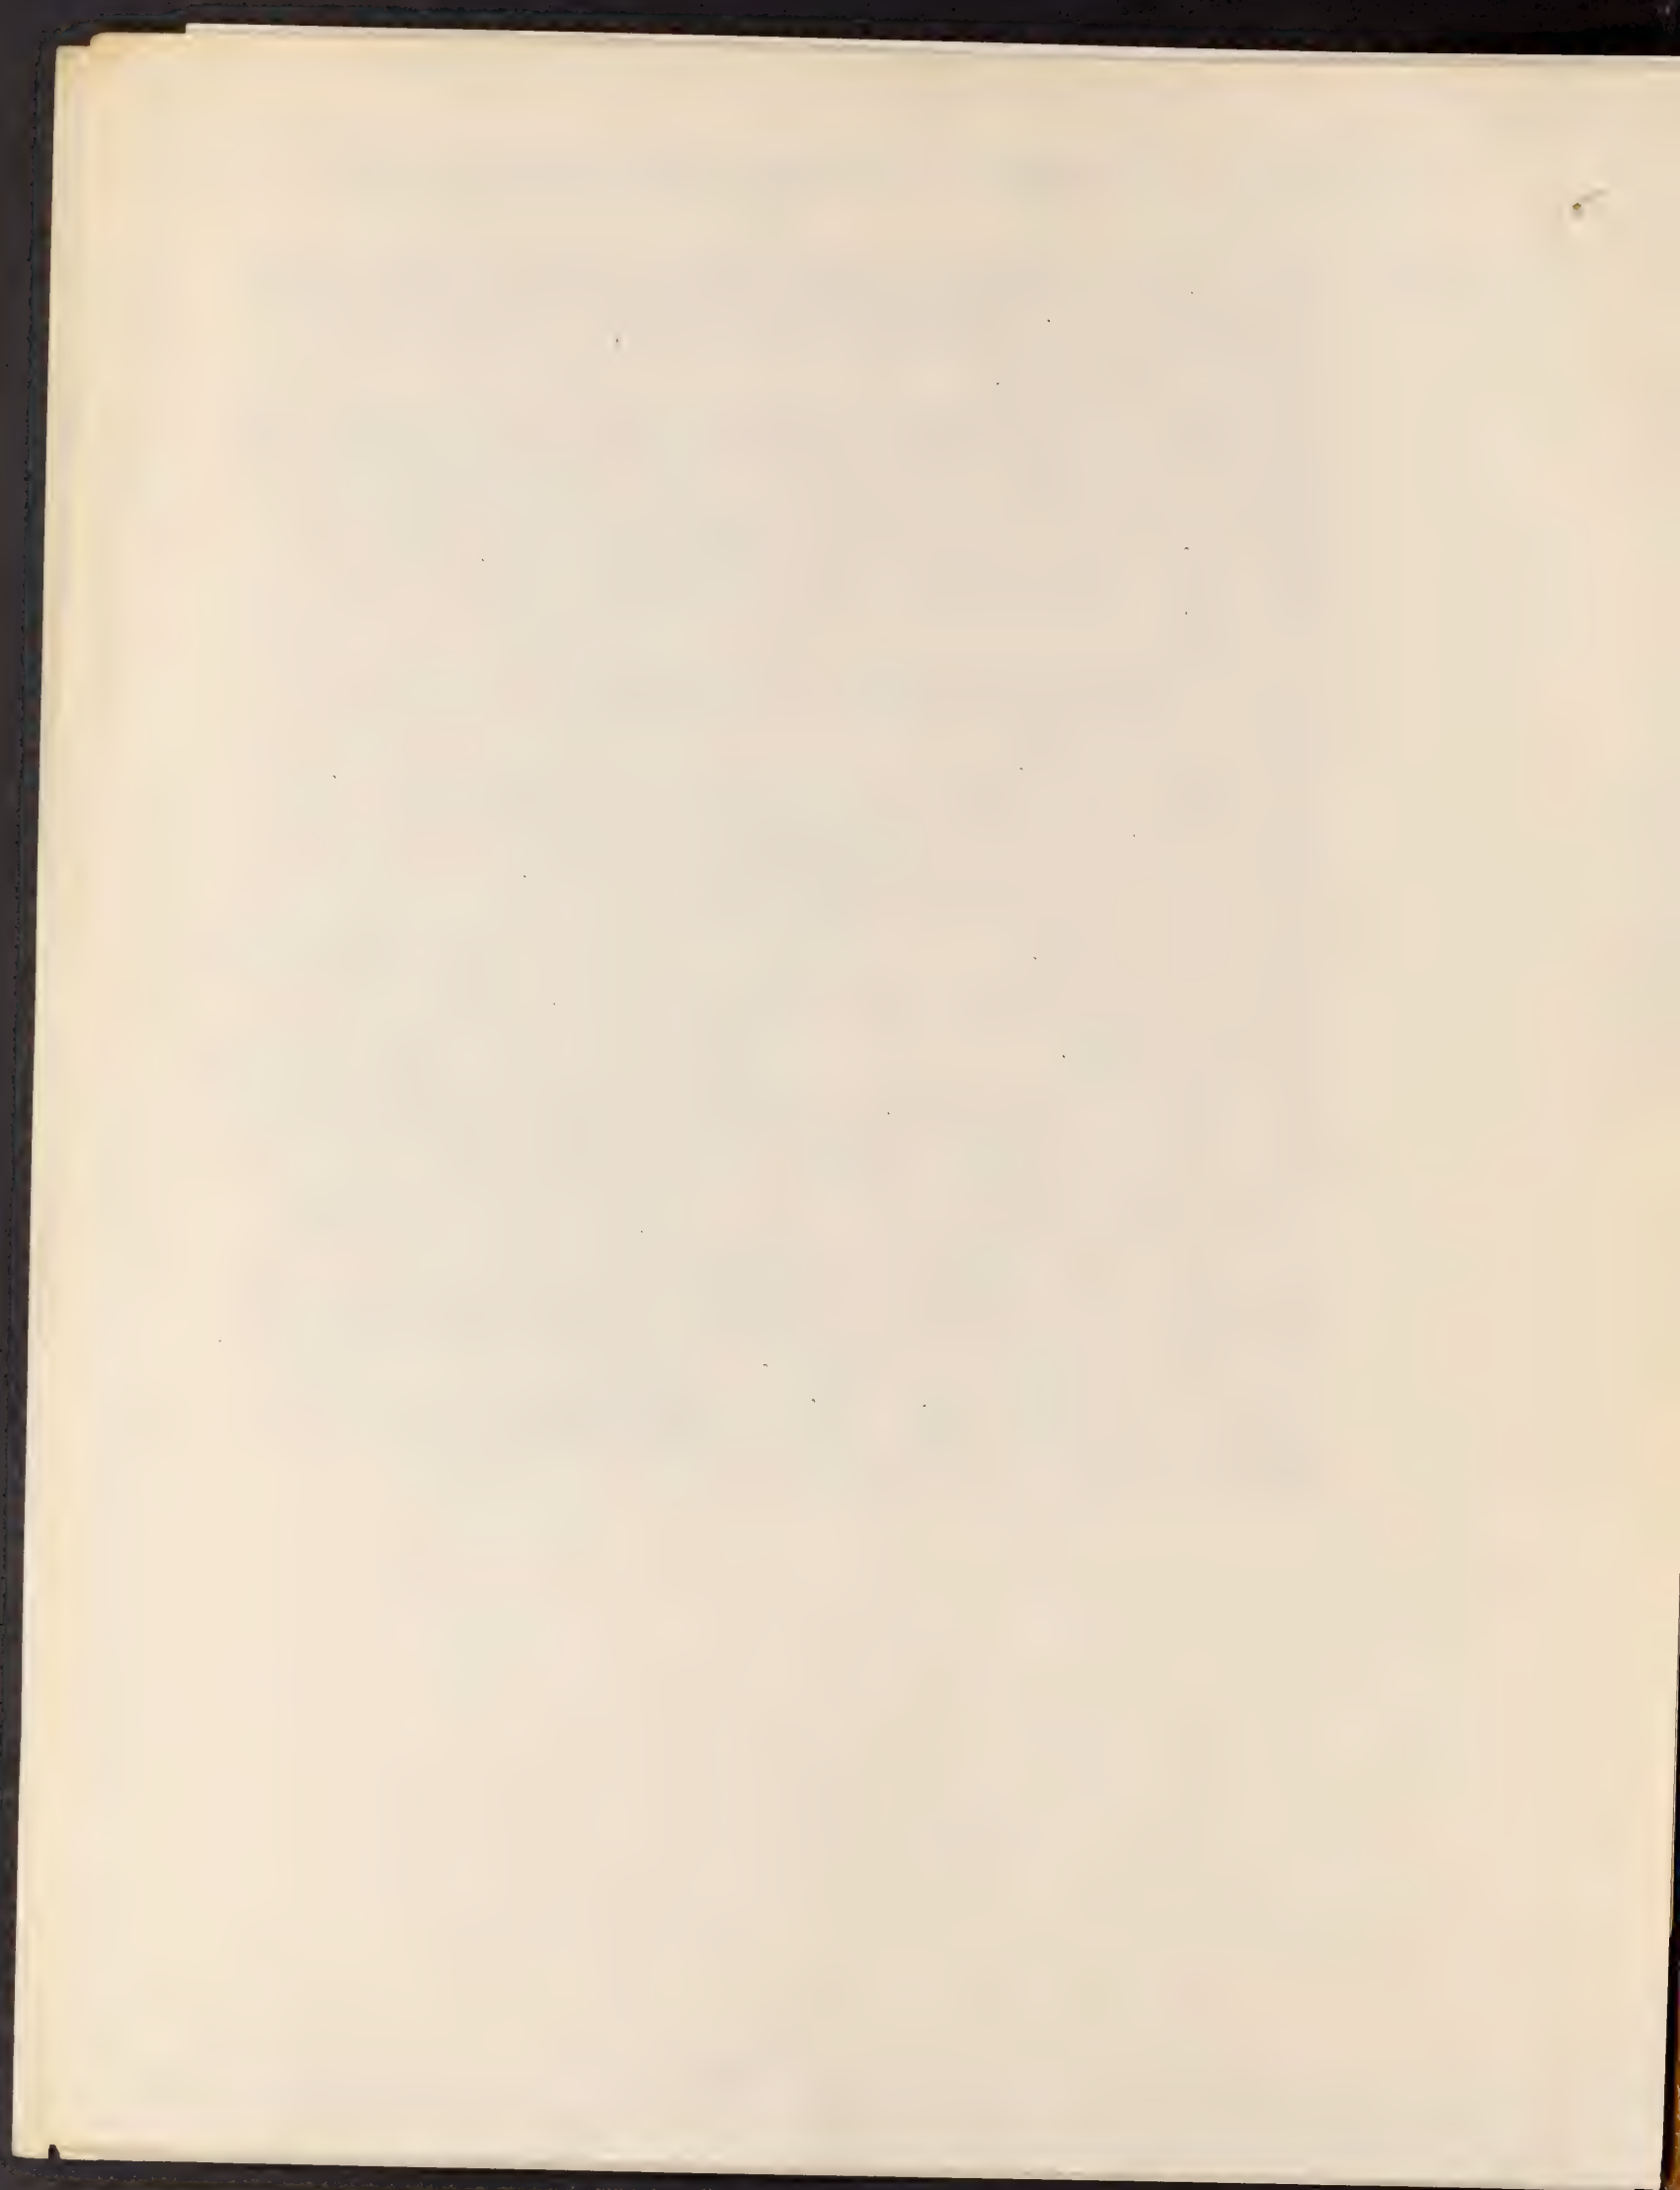

According to the 'Quebec Plan' of Ernesttown Township, he drew the east half of lot 7, concession 4. A later map shows that he drew the west half of lot 8 in the 7th concession. His name does not appear in a list of crown grants in this township, thus indicating that he left these lots between 1796 and 1800.

In Oct., 1796 his name appears on the U. E. List for Ernesttown.

In the same year he applied for lands in Murray Township, which was recommended it possible of arrangement.

On 12 July, 1798, he applied for lands as soldier and for lands for his wife as daughter of a Loyalist. She was granted 200 acres as dau. of Francis La Rocque, Sr., U. E. Williams

There is no further record of Armstrong ~~James~~. None of his children applied for lands as such, as far as can be discovered.

Dear sir:

I have been mulling over in my mind just how I should answer your recent letter. I always have a fear of my correspondence becoming buried in the pile of papers on my desk. So, I keep looking about for a suitable place to put it, so it can stare me in the face, reminding me that I must answer before it is lost.

12 September, 1964.

Here I am trying to conclude this letter more than a year later. Just as I pointed out in the first paragraph, I shall start this start of a letter to you. Please accept my apologies.

I note your interest in completing the David Williams family. From what you say, I suspect that you have nothing very definite on his family. Because of this, I am attaching a genuine copy of the David Williams Family Bible which I copied a number of years ago. It was then in the possession of Charles (Lacy) T. A. B. Ficken, who passed away several years ago. The Bible passed to his daughter, Mrs. Alice Carley, of the same address. I am afraid that the Bible was burned in a fire which destroyed her home about two months ago. A letter to her might confirm this story.

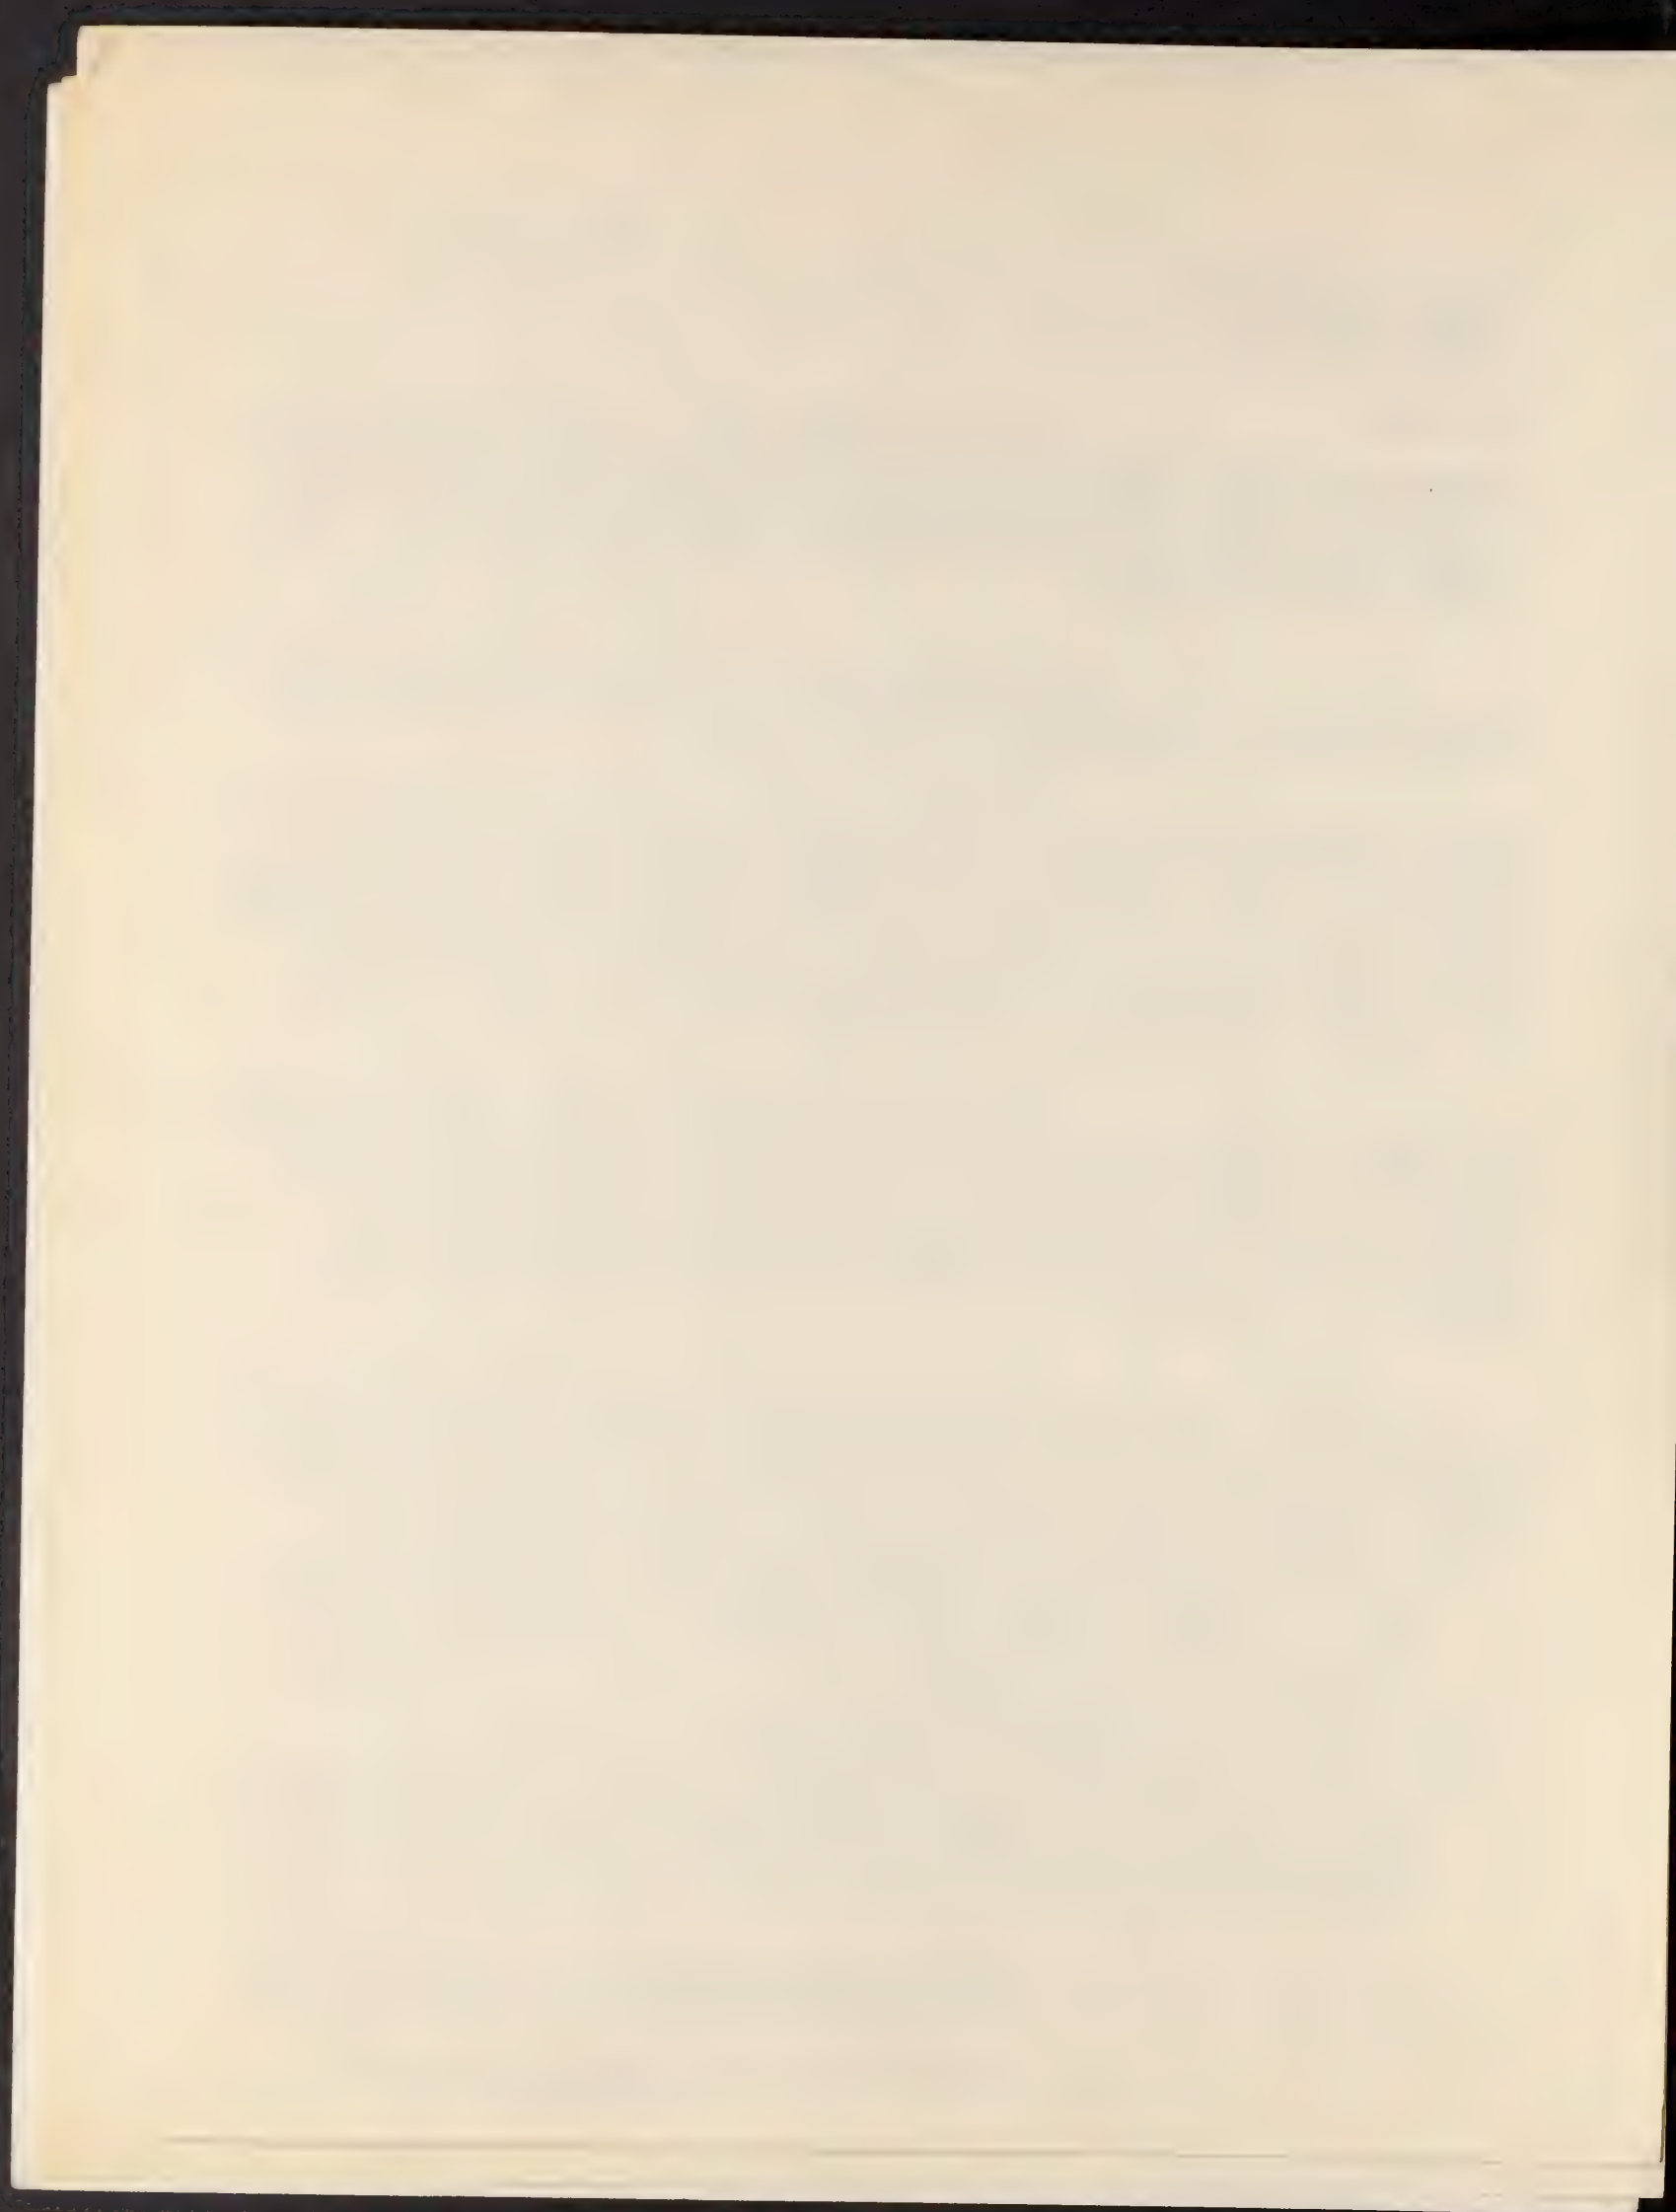

As I have told you, David Williams, born in 1775, the daughter of Cyrus Richmond and Jane Bowman, born 5 April, 1775, daughter of Ichabod Bowman. The wife is married to a man, probably from New England, a Loyalist in New York. The story is told in a letter that David's father was pressed into the American Forces against his will. To avoid being serving, he tied a string to his waist and draped it around the barrel square at Poughkeepsie, with the result that he was shot in the mind.

As you say, I am the president of the U. S. L. Association, City of White Plains. This being so, I am very much interested in compiling a true list of all Loyalists to settle in the City of White Plains. Naturally, your statement that Thomas Bowman was a Loyalist has been taken into my records. I failed to find anything to substantiate your statement.

1. His name is not in the U. S. list, nor in the Revolutionary list. In 1796, all elements to be classed as Loyalists were required to appear before the Court of Quarter Sessions with proof that they were entitled to be so classed, either discharge certificate or affidavit affirming the right to be put on the list.
2. None of his children applied for the 200 acres of land to which they were entitled, if their father were a Loyalist.
3. The name of Thomas Bowman is not found in the official list of Loyalists of the 2nd King's Loyal Regiment which is an appendix to Corfield's Settlement of Upper Canada, nor in the official lists to be found in the Land and Papers or the War Office Papers, both of which may be found in the Public Archives, Ottawa.

However, as names have been omitted from records, as I have found in a few instances, I would appreciate copy of your proof.

I hope that you will forgive my long delay.
Sincerely,

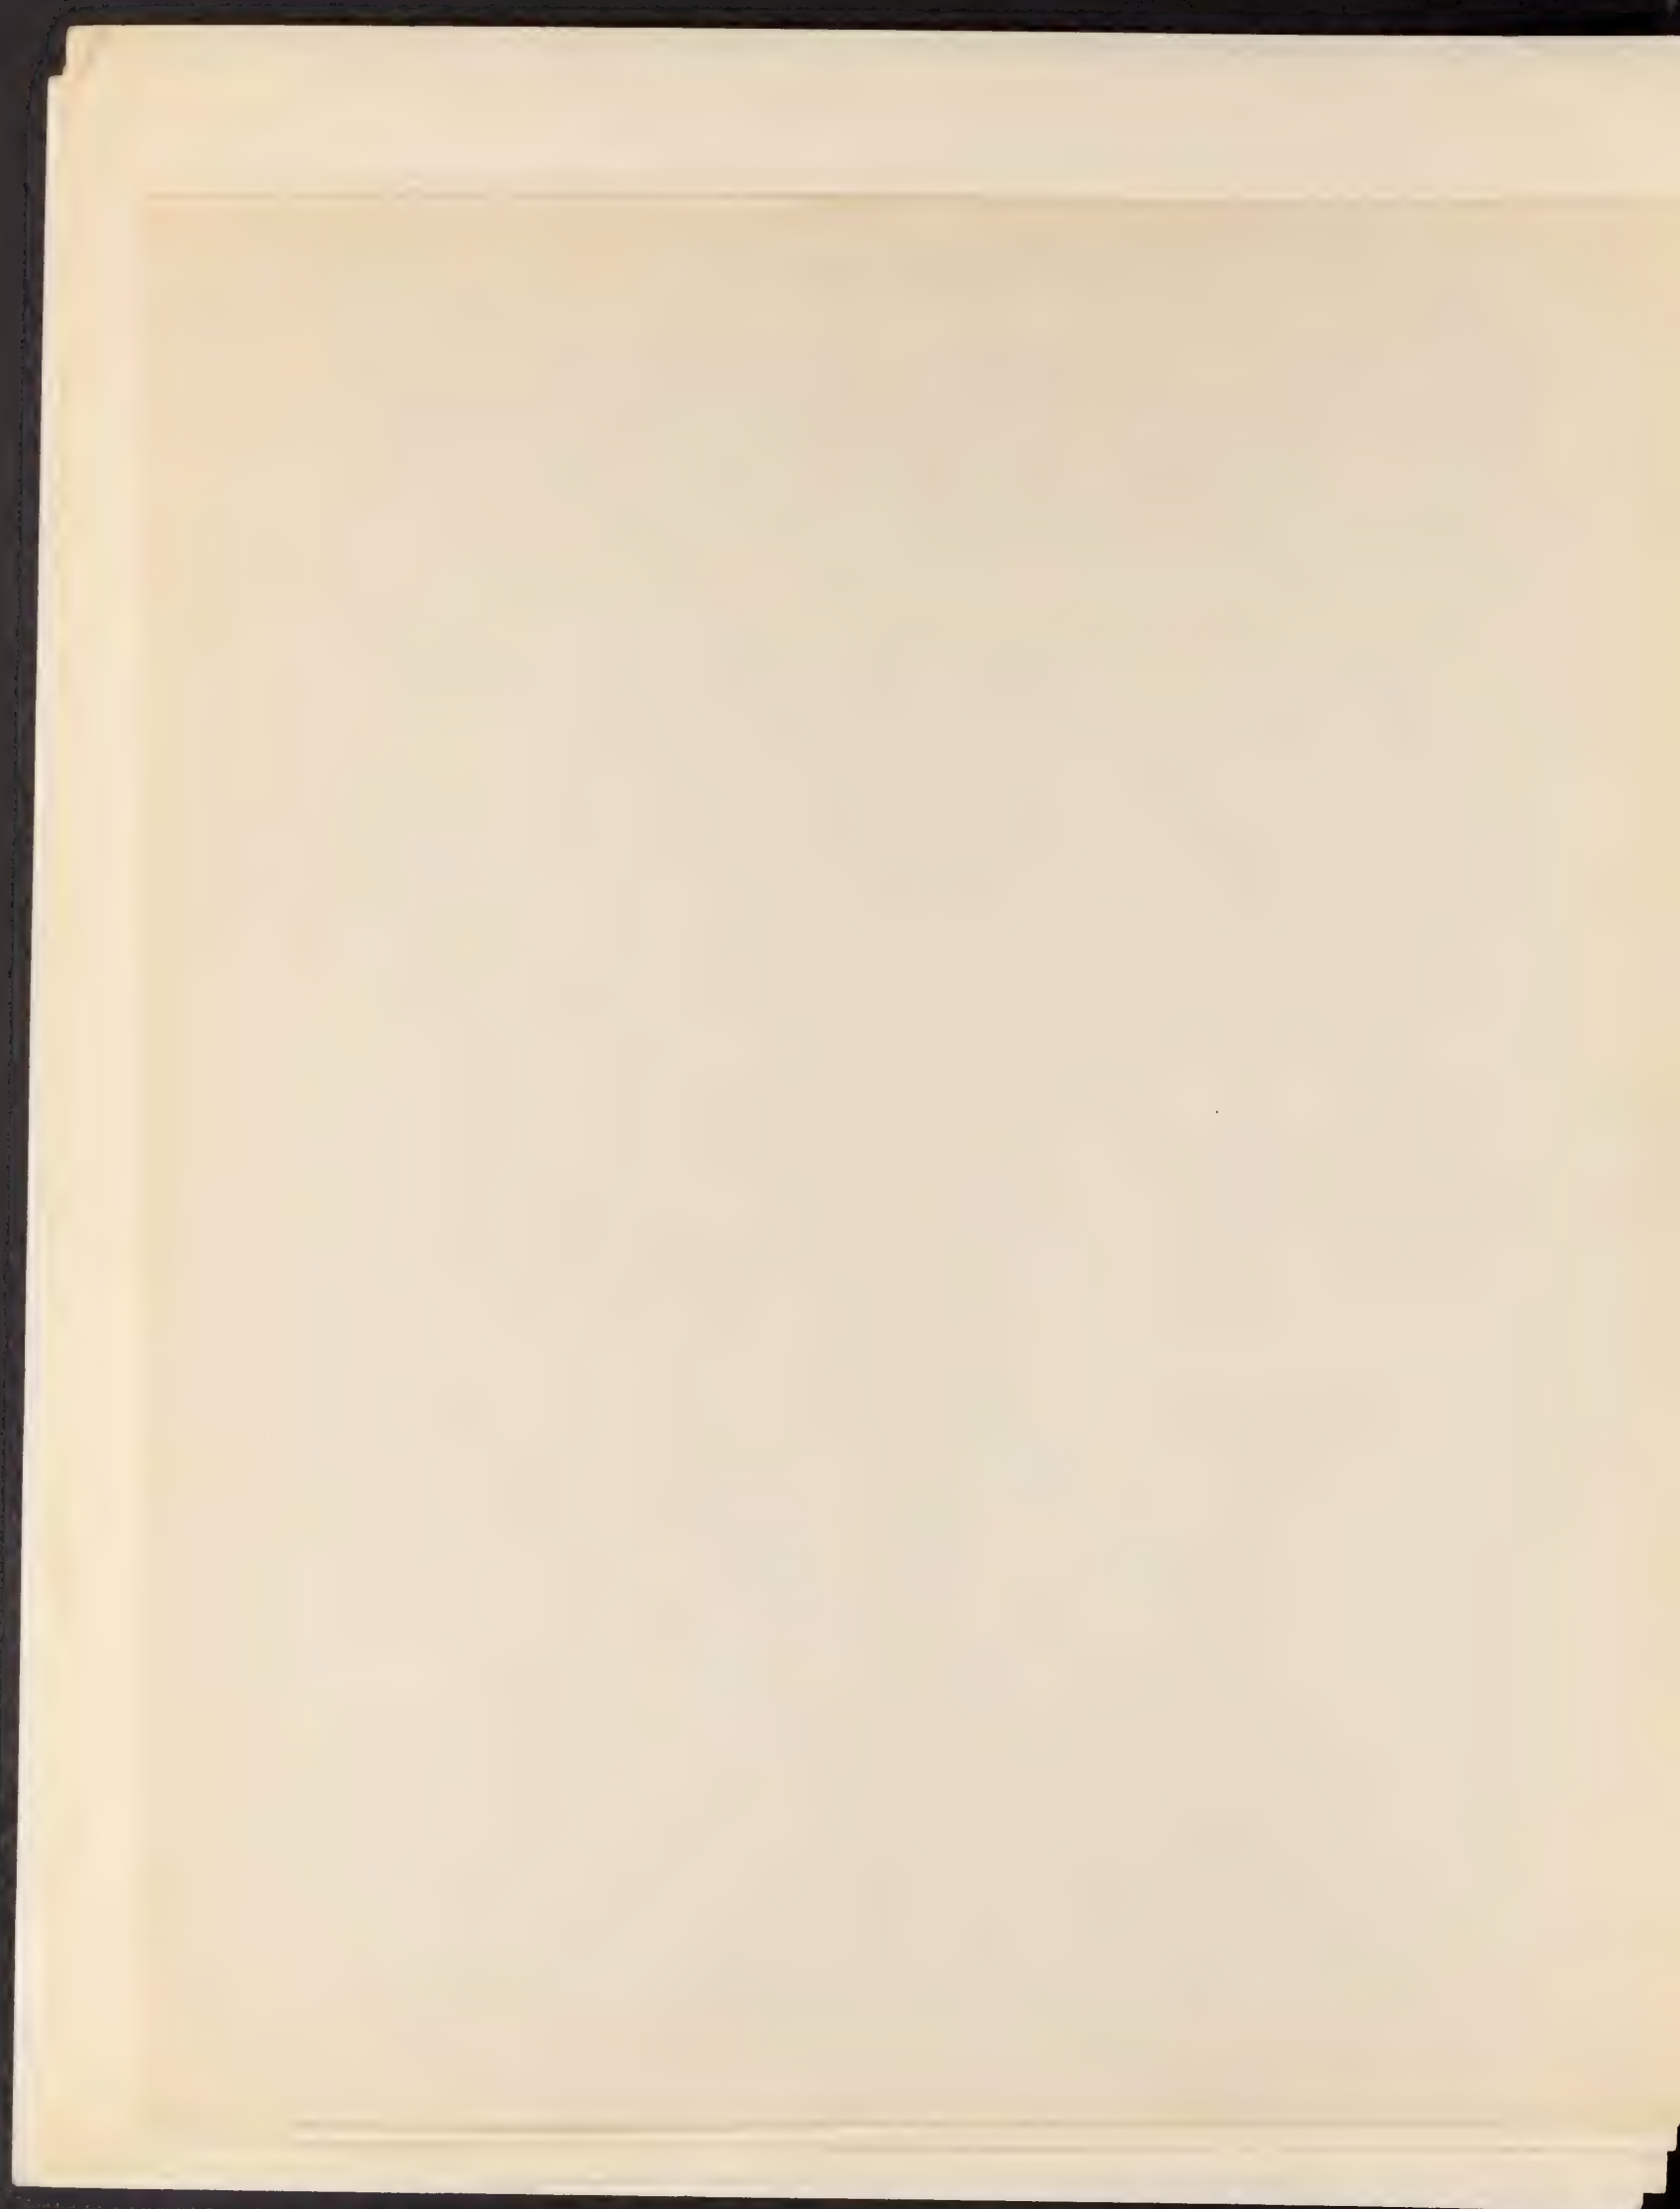

J. C. Clark Survey

Dear Br. Purleigh,-

I was sorry not to have had a little time with you in June. On Thursday the 18th when we saw you, we expected to return to Pictou next day. My brother John is not well and found it necessary to go back home that evening.

I have your letter of Aug 4, 1963 before me, which I answered at length on Aug 11th. If I can be of any help please write me again. I have completed the Whellett record, a copy of which is in the archives of the Glasgow Library, Queen's University. Another copy will be sent to the Allison House in due time.

I am working on my ancestor, Samuel Williams born in New York

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

I recently learned from Mrs. Cora Reed, genealogist at the Lennox and Addington County Museum, that you have considerable information on U.E.L. Families.

I am endeavoring to obtain information regarding the Williams family of Camden East who were U.E. Loyalists and wonder if your research had developed anything on this family.

I would be most grateful for any information you might be able to provide and would, of course, be happy to purchase any booklets or brochures that might be available.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter dated 3 Jan. regarding my enquiry in connection with the Williams family.

The branch in which I am interested is the Lorenzo Dew Williams (1831-1998) branch. He was the son of James Williams (1787-1873), son of Albert John Williams - first permanent settler of Camden East, lot 25, first Concession.

As you intimated, I am quite prepared to pay for whatever information I can obtain. Kindly let me know what your fee is.

Yours truly

W. P. Telfer
